

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, The United States Women of Today and the South Dakota Women of Today have set aside the week of September 21-27 to recognize the many community activities of the dedicated Women of Today in and throughout the country; and,

Whereas, The United States Women of Today and the South Dakota Women of Today are dedicated to actively promoting such public awareness and service programs as leadership training, speaking programs, working for charities, community service and spiritual and government involvement; and,

Whereas, The United States Women of Today and the South Dakota Women of Today provided leadership training and personal enrichment opportunities through community service to the women of America; and,

Whereas, Women of Today are, "United by our friendship and belief in the future":

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of September 21-27, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I urge all citizens of our community to give full regard to the past and continuing services to the South Dakota Women of Today.

WOMEN OF TODAY WEEK

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.
